REVENUE DEPARTMENT.

Circular No. 7212-9—1, dated 13—24*th January* 1910.

Government Order No. R. 2622-5—Ft. 40-07-4, dated 5th November 1908, re misappropriation of moneys collected by persons entrusted with the work of serving revenue processes received from other taluks.

It is observed from the reports received from districts that in many of the taluks kotwals of travellers' bungalows and such other officials are often entrusted with the work of serving notices of demand, etc., received from other taluks and cases have also been reported wherein such officials have misappropriated the amounts paid to them in the course of the service of such processes by the parties concerned. The Revenue Commissioner is led to infer that these misappropriations are more or less due to a defect in the system of taluk work, the particulars of such notices and processes received from other taluks being neither entered in a separate register nor in the one kept for the taluk itself.

The following instructions are accordingly issued for future guidance :—

A register in the appended form showing the notices and processes received and the action taken thereon shall be maintained in every Taluk Office and any particulars appearing on the process after its return from service should be entered in brief in the 'Remarks' column of the register. The Taluk Sheristadar should check the register as often as possible and see that the processes are promptly served and returned to the taluks from which they have issued.

Care should be taken to see that in issuing demand notices revised forms ordered on Government Order No. R. 1-10 —L. R. 200-07-6, dated 1st July 1908, are invariably made use of to guard against the payment of the arrears to the persons serving the notice.
